“ It is with great sorrow that i learned of the passing of Marion Cullum. I was so fortunate to know her thru my friendship with Marion’s daughter in law, Carolyn... it was so easy to fall in love with Marion, her sense of humor was infectious , Her caring and pride for her family was so deep and strong. I am betting Marion “ never met a stranger” and she left this world a better place . My deep condolences to the entire family . She was so special and adoredand I find myself lucky to have known her.
