“ I have fond memories of learning to ride my bike while spending the weekend with my cousin Joyce out on the Bristow homestead, and Aunt Margie's patience with the process.. I also remember her passion for the LaPlante family history and her stories of going to Salt Lake City ,Utah to finally put all the pieces together... Lynn Ann Severhof Manwell

“ I send my prayers and fond thoughts to Marj's family.

Marj was very kind and very knowledgeable of our family tree. I have fond memories of the family reunion at Side Cut Park all those years ago.

For those that do not know me in her immediate family, I am the daughter of her 1st cousin Richard "Dick" Schwind (deceased 2009) and the granddaughter of her mother, Melvina's (my great aunt Mel) sister Bertha (LaPlante) Schwind (deceased 1985).

I regret I will not be able to make it to the funeral home or the service at Swan Creek due to my involvement in the German American Festival this weekend.
