Marge was loved by everyone. It was common to see her holding hands and comforting other residence at Kingston. Her greatest joy was when she was surrounded by her grandchildren and great grandchildren. She enjoyed bingo, slot machines, volunteering, and margaritas. Just mentioning a trip to the Casino brought a smile to her face and brightened everyone's day.

We saw you grow so very tired
with each passing day
and hearts have grown more heavy as we saw you fade away.

We held your hand in ours so like a lovely flower that once was strong and full of bloom,
now wilting by the hour.

We talked to you of many things that happened in our lives, the role you played for all of us
Mother, Grandmother and Wife

The time has come to let you go to bid you our last goodbye and say
"We all love you so"

Rest in peace Mom.

“ My deepest condolences; I am thinking of your family during this time. Margie was a wonderful woman I had the pleasure of seeing every day during my time working at Kingston. She was always smiling, and loved clapping along to music during activities. She will be missed.
