

Marvin H. Angell

October 24, 1943 - August 15, 2024

Marvin Henry Angell, a beloved brother, uncle, and friend, passed away peacefully on August 15, 2024, in Las Vegas, Nevada, at the age of 80. Born on October 24, 1943, in Toledo, Ohio, Marvin lived a life full of laughter, love, and a little bit of mischief.

Marvin was a devout Catholic who cherished his faith and family above all else. He grew up in Toledo, where he graduated from Woodward High School and began his early career as a Teamster in the Trucking Industry. After relocating to Las Vegas, Marvin dedicated his professional life to the Printing Industry, where he expertly handled accounting duties for SKIPCO then at Advanced Imaging Solutions until his well-deserved retirement in 2023. Marvin had a quick wit and a humor that kept everyone around him on their toes. He had a unique way of lightening any mood with a cleverly timed comment or a playful grin. His love for his dogs was only rivalled by the love he had for his family. Though he didn't have children of his own, Marvin was a father figure to many, offering wisdom, guidance, and plenty of laughs to those fortunate enough to know him.

He is survived by his brother, Richard Leo Angell; his sister, Mary Ann Angell-Harouff; and his cherished nephews and niece: Gary Leo Harouff, Ken Harouff, Jon Angell, Matthew Angell, Michael Angell, Paul Angell, and Carmel Guidry. Marvin was also adored by his great nephews and nieces: Bronson Harouff, Gabriel Harouff, Colton Harouff, Albert Moran, Gregory Moran, Simeon Brown, Alexandra Harouff, Evelynrose Harouff, Hadassah Brown,
