“Mary was such a dear lady. She raised the sweetest, most wonderful daughter who has been a blessing to our family and my brother for over 26 years. We love you, Cindy! You, Mark, and the girls are in our thoughts and prayers.

“Cynthia, your mother made it delightful to be around her. Her smile was warm and genuine. You were faithful with her as she neared the end of her life, especially by helping her get to and participate in things that were important to her. May god grant you peace, healing, hope, and joy.

“Mary was my aunt. She was always happy and laughing and I got to speak with her the week before she died and she even was laughing then. She was a very creative and talented person. I still have items she made for me or my family in my home. She was a true angel to all. She will surely be missed.

“ While growing up in Carlisle, Mary was my neighbor. She was much more than a neighbor. She was like a second mother and later on a friend. She was the kindest, most thoughtful person- at all times. She lived out the testimony of what the Christian life looks like. She was my mom's best friend and encouraged her many times. I was so glad to have known Mary and grown up with her friendship. Though she will be missed, heaven is blessed to have her join the host of other saints. Love you, Mary.
