“ To the garza girl and joe ,
I can't even try to imagine the pain and emptiness you guys are feeling. I know your still grieving your daddy , so that makes it harder. Your parents raised you to be strong , with faith and knowing where she is you will get through this time . So many memories where do I start... You guys would crack me up because you always called your parents mommy and daddy no matter how old you got ! Your mom was so kind and welcoming . She loved her flowers by the pool I remember her always watering them while we were swimming. And don't mess with joe, that was her baby ! Your mom had a good heart, awesome sense of humor , very hard working ,and she was Dedicated to god, may she be at peace with her husband . You guys are in my prayers , love you all Antonia Franco

“Mary: My heart is heavy as I think of your departure. My comfort is the blessing we have shared. Oh, so many joyful and fun memories of our friendship. Memories that started in high school and continued through 2015. I think I could write a book on our life adventures that would be a best seller. Today, even though I know I will miss you, I will rejoice that you are with the Lord and know that the day will come when you and your loved one will be reunited. Love you Mary.

*Praying that the Lord give your children strength during this difficult time. My condolences to the Duran and Garza families.

“ Mary Garza taught many to trust in the Lord in the face of adversity. Many of us have gone through trials before but nothing like Mary had endured in the last couple of years. I watched her walk through the blackest nights with grace, peace and faith in the Lord. I never saw her flinch or hiccup on that point. Treatment for her cancer was no picnic yet every time I'd see her she had a smile on her face and was happy to see me and others who would visit her. Always her concern was always for the state of mind of her loved ones. Even when she went through the most suffering, she was more concerned of others. She kept thinking, "What about Danny, and so and so? How is he holding up?" The hero is no braver than the ordinary person, the hero just fights five minutes longer," Well, Mary fought till the very end and for that reason she is one of my heroes. She always told me that she was asking the Lord for opportunities to share Him with those who didn't know Him. Well, she was given that opportunity. Mary shared her love for Lord with everyone.

We Christians really don't die. We fall asleep. The new testament is clear on this. To be absent from this body is to be present with the LORD. But our bodies sleep until the last day. Mary just feel asleep a little bit ahead of us. And she feel asleep with style, with class, with FAITH, with GRACE, and with a heart filled with LOVE for others rather than pity for herself.

I thank GOD for having the privilege of knowing this sister. The world is not worthy of such a one as her. She was a choice vessel of the Lord. And she greatly impacted those she met.

While her passing is great gain for her; it's a huge loss for us who knew her. There will be a gaping hole in our hearts for some time. But GOD will use the instrument of time to heal those holes.

Our God has chosen to not fully disclose His every plan. He instead beckons us to trust Him. To rest confidently in the fact that He can see further than we can. And what He does in always right and just.

Nonetheless, we can take comfort in a few things this evening that simply will not move. While our God is sovereign and sees and knows all things. We can be assured of this. He suffers with us in our pain. He grieves with us in our loss. He hurts with us in our suffering. So we can cling to Him in our time of grief and mourning. While the wisest among us do not have any answers as to the question, "WHY" ... and such answers really wouldn't remove the pain anyway even if we knew them....as children of the most high GOD, we can weep with those who weep and suffer with those who suffer. And therein, we can find some comfort.

Joseph, Mona, Nikki and Cindy know that your mom loved you so much and only wanted you to know the GOD she loved and served. She truly will be missed. My deepest condolences and prayers for all of your family.
