

Mary Patricia Graden

October 2, 1949 - June 14, 2026

Surrounded by the love of her family, Mary Pat Graden passed away after a courageous six-year battle with cancer. Born on October 2, 1949, she lived a life defined by devotion, kindness, and an unwavering commitment to the people she loved.

For 41 years, she shared a beautiful marriage with her husband, Joseph Graden, building a home filled with laughter, loyalty, and deep affection. She was the proud mother of Matthew (Kate) Graden, Jennifer Graden, and Deborah Johnson, and the cherished grandmother of Elliot Hultquist, Sydney Graden, Rose Graden, and Simon Graden. She is also survived by her siblings Bob (Donna) Kirschner, Kathy Hott, and Joanne (David) Ward, along with numerous nieces and nephews who remained close to her throughout her life.

Family and friends were the heart of her world. She loved gathering around a table to play cards, share stories, and enjoy the simple joy of being together. Known for her caring spirit, she had a remarkable ability to make others feel seen, supported, and fiercely protected. If you were loved by her, you knew it - she stood by her people without hesitation.

Her strength throughout her illness was a testament to her character. She fought with grace, courage, and a determination that inspired everyone around her.

She leaves behind a legacy of compassion, loyalty, and love - one that will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew her. Friends and family may visit at the Coyle Funeral Home, 1770 S. Reynolds Rd. on Saturday, June 20 from 10:00 a.m.- 2:00 p.m. The Funeral Ceremony and Sharing of Memories will begin at 1:00. In lieu of flowers, send memorial donations to Ohio Living Home Health and Hospice. Please view Mary Pat's video tribute and leave a condolence message for the family at CoyleFuneralHome.com.
