“ I remember going to Frankenmuth Michigan with my with Aunt Mary Ellen and my mom. I loved her mint sugar cookies with the sprinkles on top they were the best! I also remember how my mom and her were thick as thieves. You will be greatly missed but you are now at peace with your husband your mom and dad and your sister.

“ Aunt Mary Ellen had an infectious laugh and a mischievous twinkle in her eyes! She baked some great Christmas cookies, a task she took from our Grandma Typpi which then went to cousin Sandy. My mother Marie and Mary Ellen were sisters through and through until illness separated them. I have fond memories of our families getting together often. Aunt Mary Ellen, you will be missed. Rest in peace with all your loved ones in heaven.
