I took care of Mary for a short time and she will always remain one of my favorites. She had the best sense of humor and the sweetest smile. She kept me laughing and I will miss her so much I was really sad to hear... I don't work there any longer but somebody let me know she passed. Condolences to the family.

Dear Betsy & Family, Loosing a loved one is never easy. Fortunately you have friends & family to share your feelings with as you work through this difficult scenario. We offer our empathy & sympathy to each of you from our heart. We hope Gods grace & mercy will give each of you the strength to go through this with a positive attitude, because Mary has reached her life long goal, to be with her maker for eternity. Be happy for her, for she is now with the Lord, praying that you will join her one day. God Bless each of you.

Love,

*Mike & Julie Kulakowski

“ Dear Joy and Jill, Please accept our prayers and sympathies for the loss of your sister, Mimi. We didn't know her but, no doubt, she shared the same love of life and friendliness that the two of you exude. May God rest her soul and comfort all who loved her.
