“ I noticed a strong resemblance of this Mary L. Nolan to the Mary L. Nolan, B.A., R.N., who was on faculty of the University of Michigan School of Nursing for the academic year 1959-1960. She was an instructor in medical-surgical nursing specialties. The photo I have uploaded is from the 1960 Aequanimitas yearbook. Can anyone tell me if this instructor is "your" Mary Nolan? --Janet Tarolli. My email is jtarolli@umich.edu

“ Mary was an amazing lady who accepted people without judgement and trusted them. My memories of her when I was young are warm and loving memories of a grand lady who gave to all that she met.##imported-begin##John Wakelin

“ *Mary has been a great friend to me and treated me like a daughter most of the time. I will miss our talks and her stories about when her kids were young and the silly things they did. Like the chicken in the mailbox. I hope she will be able to guide me when i get stuck on a particular stitch when i crochet. She know's I would get so frustrated at times when we would crochet together. You will be greatly missed, Mary. I love you and carry you iin my heart. “ Mike, Jeff, Sandra, Chris, Tom, Joe and family and friends, my thoughts and prayers are always with you.

*May the road rise to meet you,
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
The rains fall soft upon your fields.
And until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of his hand.*

I loved you so very dearly, Mary. Always and Forever.##imported-begin##Connie Barger noexcuse@ymail.com##imported-end##

“ To the Family of Mary,

For those who knew her for years or moments, know that Mary, always gave you a warm smile, and greeting. She made my brother and I feel like her sons. She emanated spirituality, and love. She is at peace, and peace be tp you all , God bless !!##imported-begin##Chalo Campos chalo4279@yahoo.com##imported-end##
