“ *To Bob and family -
Mari and I send our prayerful condolences on the loss of Mary Bridget.
I remember her as a little daughter of Cormac and Eileen, through to her marriage to Bob, raising her fine family, and even to her steady and very helpful hands at Kroger.
She is fondly remembered . . .*

“ To Robert, Ray, Bob, and the rest of the family. I admired all of you from the time we first met at Mary Immaculate. Know that I appreciated all you did to work with us with the boys education and for your time to clean and beautify the school. Thank you! I enjoyed the times I met Mary at church or at the Kroger Store. She would share how Bob and Ray were doing through High School and College. Mary was so proud of your successes along the way. May Mary continue to provide for your needs.! My sympathy and prayers continue to support you and bring you peace. Sister Mary Doretta, SND

“Mary was truly a kind, caring and gracious person. Even when I visited her when she was ill, she was more interested in how you and your family were doing than sharing her health struggles.

It was very interesting to hear her tell stories about her mother's and father's families. How she was able to remember all the facts amazed me. Mary was truly a lovely Irish woman who was so proud of her heritage. May the dear Lord hold you always in the palm of His hand. My prayers to Bob and the children who have experienced such a deep loss.

“ I have never met Mary, nor do I know anything about her - except one important thing. I have often been amazed by the life that is produced by a single seed. A tulip or daisy finds expression in the flower, but it is the seed that carried the gift of reality of the flower that is produced. In recently meeting Raymond, I can accurately determine some of what Mary was in life. Ray learned his joy, kindness, attentiveness and care for other from someone. I can assume that Mary was strongly involved in the man Ray has become.

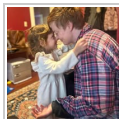

I also have seen Mary's character and fruit through the impression she made upon Raymond's fiance, Alex. One of the things I love about Alexandra is her ability to honestly see things as they are. Her compliments of Mary's "mom-in-law" love and acceptance also speak highly of Mary's many gifts.

So I pay prayerful tribute to Mary for what have seen in one of her flowers. May God comfort the family as Mary is received into Christ's eternal friendship and care.

“ To the Utrup Family: We are so very sorry for your loss. Only one of us (Gary) ever got to meet Mary, and it was only on one occasion, but it was immediately obvious that she was as special a person as her daughter Cate, who is our close friend, had told us. We hope that before long your first thoughts of Mary are not these very difficult past few months but instead the many happy times you shared together. Gary and Rozy Simson
