

Mercedes M. Gonzalez

September 9, 1925 - April 8, 2015

Mercedes Gonzalez, 89, passed away peacefully in her sleep due to congenital heart failure on April 8, 2015 at the Manor of Perrysburg, Ohio. She was born on September 9, 1925 to Eloy and Ceferina (Lopez) Morell in Camury Puerto Rico. She spent her adult life in Lorain, Ohio, working many years at the old St. Joseph Hospital in the housekeeping department. Her first love was Sacred Heart Chapel, where she developed life time bonds. Her life revolved around the chapel, and ministering to the poor, hungry and the sick. When her mail arrived it contained petitions from a dozen charitable organizations asking for contributions. She did not have the heart to turn down anyone in need.

Mercedes is survived by her son Ariel "Tony" (Myriam) Arvelo, grandchildren Tony (Margie), Orlando (Emma), Alana (Tom) Arvelo and Natalie (Bill) Kinsey; and 8 great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Nestor Gonzalez, her sister Amelia, and brothers Antonio and Luis. The funeral mass will be held on Saturday, April 11 at the Sacred Heart Chapel, 4301 Pearl Ave. in Lorain, Ohio, 44055, at 10:00 a.m., with an hour of visitation beginning at 9 at church. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery, Lorain. Coyle Funeral Home, Toledo, Ohio, is assisting the family with arrangements. In lieu of flowers, all memorial contributions can be given to the general operation funds of Sacred Heart Chapel, her first love.
