“ I was just talking about you this morning, and how it had been about 20 years since I had seen your smiling face. In Googling you, I had no idea I would find your obituary from almost 2 years ago! This just breaks my heart to know that you suffered and left way too soon, but I am comforted knowing that you are no long suffering, and are in a pain free place in Heaven. I have so many wonderful memories with you, Michael, and I will always cherish how you always treated me. You were a true gentleman, and even though time and years separated our get togethers, you were always in my thoughts and heart. Give my beautiful Momma a hug up there for me, okay? I lost her 6 months before you passed on. I wish peace and comfort for your family and loved ones. See you in Heaven, my bud!

I grew up with these guys, worked with them at the original Buck Asphalt Company. I am so sorry to hear about Mike. I have many great memories with these guys and some pretty funny stories too.

“ I had no one to take me to the prom in High school and I really wanted to experience this. So I asked my cousin Mike if he would take me and he said no problem. He was a real gentlemen and the girls at the prom gave him goo-goo eyes cause he was so handsome. I am floored, I knew nothing about him being sick. So sad. I lost a best friend and cousin. May he be at piece and with his family in heaven. RIP

Susan/Susie as he would call me.

I met mike years ago through jeff bucks family whom lived around the corner from me. Mike was and still will be my mentor. I always thought i was ugly and he walked up to me and said to me your a sweetheart and beautiful you're not ugly. Every time i ran into him he still remembered to say hi swearheart. I will miss those words of confidence from my mentor. Love ya mike see you in heaven.
