

Michael Lyons

January 4, 1944 - November 25, 2025

Michael William Lyons, born January 4, 1944, died on November 25, 2025 after a two month illness. Even though Mike was quite a fighter with his Irish wit, he now lays peacefully in the arms of Our Lord for eternity. The family is grateful for the staff at Toledo Hospital, Mercy Hospital of Perrysburg, Kingston Rehabilitation and St Vincent's Hospital for their care and kindness.

Mike was a devoted family man who loved to spend vacations relaxing with his family and friends in the sun on Anna Maria Island, Florida. He found joy in his gardens, had a lifelong passion for cars, and took great pride in his Irish heritage.

Mike had forty-five years experience in the Ohio Electrical Industry, involved in related fields of sales, distribution, manufacturing, purchasing and production control for Northwest Ohio and Michigan companies. He worked closely with Surface Combustion, Keimle-Hankins, Hoffman Engineering, The Haley Company, INTEC Automation and Supply, as well as McAuliffe Sales until his retirement in 2014.

Michael was born in Toledo, Ohio to Thomas and Helen (Murphy) Lyons. He attended Our Lady of Perpetual Help (OLPH) , St. Francis de Sales High School and The University of Toledo.

Michael is survived by his wife of fifty six years, Janice (Harris) and daughters, Bridget (Christopher) Taylor of Worthington, Ohio and Sarah (Paul) Palmer of Findlay, Ohio, grandchildren: Sydney and Abigail Taylor, Quin and Grace Palmer and niece, Megan Lyons (Garrett) Miller. He is also survived by his brother, Thomas (Dianne) Lyons and cousin, Marilyn (Michael) Errington and many sister-in-laws, brother-in-laws, nieces, nephews and his beloved Goldendoodle, Riley. Michael was preceded in death by his parents, and brother, William J. Lyons.
