“ Dear Armstrong Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is fresh, even with the passage of much time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress. (Psalms83:18, Psalms65:2) Please be assured , death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again. (Isaiah 25:8) My family and I wish you and yours peace. (Phillipians4:7)

We share your sorrow at the loss of your mother so soon after the loss of your father. We enjoyed their company and friendship for many years. They were both good people and we will miss them too.

Dear Donna, Diane , and Mike: Having lost both parents already I can somewhat feel what you are going through. You may you feel sadness and comfort at the same time. I am sure the comfort is knowing that they are together once again. While your dad and my mom are also being reunited, the big one I think is being with their spouse. I hope this time finds you feeling more comfort and enjoying great memories. I have pictures of my parents in most rooms of my home, and I find I visit with them often. It helps me. Love to all.
