“ *Bill, Teresa and family. Very sad to read about Nancy's passing. She was not only a wonderful woman and neighbor but she also worked with 2 of my grand kids at the pre-school. Both, Owen and Anna loved her. God Bless you all.

“ *I was so very sorry to learn of Nancy's passing. My Brother Bob (Bates, Cheryl's husband) and I had a good cry together as we both hurt for the loss of such a lovely lady. She was a gracious hostess who made delicious dinners for us (our Mom, Linda Bates and I) when we visited Ohio together to see family. I'm grateful for our time together last year at Patrick's college graduation. She was always so kind and loving, I'll miss seeing her at our next reunion. My heartfelt sympathies to Bill and the rest of our family. I love you all.

“ Nancy was my favorite teacher in grade school (and I think my classmates would agree). I was in her 4th grade class at St. Ann's the year she got married. One semester she was Miss Horn and then she returned after her wedding as Mrs. Borer--which was hard for us to get used to and harder to pronounce. My sympathies to the family on losing a wonderful person.

“ Nancy was one of my sister Mary’s best friends and as it turns out so was Bill’s Sister Janet.

She knew how to pick the best. Our families used to get together at Christmas time each year.

I am pretty sure Mary met Nancy through my Aunt who lived 2 or 3 houses from each other.

Nancy is in my top 3 of the nicest people I have ever met in my life and at 77 I've met a lot.

Most religious and non-religious people have one philosophy in common – “leave this earth better than you found it” and Nancy did that as well as anyone I’ve known.

Our thoughts and sympathy go to Bill and their children as well as to Janet and Ron Borer.

We are in Florida so we are sorry we will miss the memorial at St. Patrick’s of Heatherdowns
