

Natalie J. Smith

December 7, 1927 - June 19, 2011

Natalie J. Smith of Sylvania, Ohio passed away peacefully with her family at her side on June 19th, 2011 in Hospice of North West Ohio, Perrysburg. She was born in Coldwater, Michigan on December 7, 1927 to Rollin and Gladys Kerr. Preceding her in death was her husband of 63 years, Jerry Smith of Coldwater, Michigan.

Natalie graduated from Coldwater High School in 1945 and attended Stephens College in Columbia, Mo. She also attended and graduated from De Pauw University in Green Castles Indiana.

Surviving her is a brother, Richard (Helen) Kerr of Michigan.

Natalie was the very proud Mother of Andy (Jill), and Rick (Tricia) Smith; Grandmother of Alex, Travis and Koa, all of Hawaii and Hunter, Gabrielle, Kathryn and Caroline of Perrysburg, Ohio.

Her hobbies were watching golf and surfing, oil painting and playing the piano.

Donations honoring Natalie may be made to Hospice of Northwest Ohio.

30000 East River Rd. Perrysburg, Ohio, 43551.

Internment will be private at a later date in Coldwater Mi.

“ Dear Andy, Rick and Families,

My deepest condolences on your loss. Natalie was such a good friend to us here on Wicklow Woods. She was especially happy to be on the Architectural Control Committee so that she could play an active role in the beauty and upkeep of our neighborhood. I will miss her so much. Sometimes we would have our cocktail and talk on the phone (that is if she wasn't out eating with someone). I have enjoyed many wonderful evenings with her. She was a very special lady.##imported-begin##Mary Egan##imported-end##
