“ Jane and Family I want to extend my sympathy to all of you. When I saw the obituary in the paper it brought back some fond memories of when we were young. I used to come over to "play" and your mom would always make us treats while we played Risk and hot chocolate to warm us up after skating on the back yard rink. You are in our prayers. May she rest in peace.

“ As a Eucharistic Minister at Ohio Living, I was blessed to have met Pat and her husband Jack. Even during Pat's breathing treatment she would stop just long enough to receive Holy Communion. She was a wonderful Christian lady.

“ I loved my Grandma so much! I have so many lovely memories and she will be greatly missed. She always came to my important events, from my gymnastics and swim meets when I was a kid to my wedding in Aruba in 2014!

Grandma also made the best Thanksgiving dinner and Christmas cookies. I will never forget all the fun Pictionary games we played at her house. Every year at Christmas she would give us new Christmas ornaments with the dates on the bottom which I will cherish forever.

*We love you Grandma!
