“ Blessings and prayers to Pat's family: I loved my time working with Pat 20+ years ago; we always exchanged Christmas cards with plans to get together. She was so kind always and very smart - even though older she was great on computers. and designed some great spread sheets that took the place of online programs. She took over my job when I went part time to be with my boys and amazed me how quickly she was on her own. I love the smiling picture. What an adventuresome life she led. She was very proud of you her children.
