“ I remember one time I was 4years old and I fell down the front door steps at Ama'shouse . As I laid on the ground crying my Mom came out and found me. She lifted me into her arms an comforted me I felt her unconditional love for me. I had the best Mom ever.

“ I remember Saturday afternoons in the Summer, Saturnino and his wife Mary would drop off their brood off at Abuelo Mariano's House on Eaton Dr. Everybody single file, all into the house and greet Abuela Chana; then Tia Pauline would shoo me and my brothers and sisters out of the house so she and Tia Josie and maybe a couple other gals would be hammering a few beers and watching Big Time Wrestling. I remember all the fussing and discussing about who was the best.

*You were the best Tia,
you were always the best.*

“ When I was young my sister an I got to spend two weeks of every summer with aunt pauline. Those times I can say we're the best times growing up an i can honestly say the same for my sister. My aunt pauline....I could say all kinds of things about my aunt pauline. But things I remember most was her gruffness, but it was always tempered with her dry sense of humor an wit. She was beautiful, an how a little piece of her shine was lost when esaw was. And now its over no more pain, no more waiting just rest an peace for her. I loved my aunt pauline.

I did not meet cousin Pauline until a few years ago, but I had heard so much about her from my mother. My mother, who was first cousin to Mariano Zavala (Pauline's father) spoke of them growing up together in Poteet, Texas. My prayers go out to Diana , Marta and their families sending my love .. Pauline I know you are at Peace.
