“ My Dear Uncle... I find this a Tragic, but joyful notification as we were not told of this. I was a young man when you once helped me in a wise and generous way. I never was able to tell you how truly Grateful I was for that moment! I never got to know you as I would have liked... But, Growing up with your Brother, My Dad, I can only imagine what a Genuine and True Man You were on this Earth. My mom and I tried to find where you were, But signals were crossed, Messages lost. Alas, Mom passed without talking to you or knowing a correct address. When you read this... Always Know, Your Brother and the rest of your Family Tree, Miss you, & Will love you Eternal.

Mr. & Mrs. Charles E. Sherbno.
& Son.

“ I was saddened to read of Fr. Sherbno's death. I wrote to him a few years ago commenting on his influence on my life.

He taught at CCHS when I was a junior. He also taught that year at Mary Manse colledge. He announced that he was going to try an experiment...he was going to teach us high school girls the same course he taught to college students. He gave us very important insight into our faith and answered any questions we had. I have cherished throughtout my life the lessons I learned from this very wonder teacher. God bless him.##imported-begin##Joan Gordon Vanek ToledoRiver@yahoo.com##imported-end##
