“ These are great discussion far over my head. I tend to get lost in the wormholes. All I know is something (I’m not sure what) is working for me; so I think it best that for my sake, and the benefit of others, I continue to stay of this path. The engine in my car works just fine, so I’m not going to take it apart.” Texted message 2 November 2020,,,,

When did the student become my teacher? Some place along the way during the past 30 years he did. Rick developed the knowledge of surrender, rebirth, struggle, suffering, resurrection, and salvation. He showed me by his actions of what to do and how to be with regards to life. He walked the walk rather than talked the talk.*

“ I was so sad to hear of Rick's passing. He was a part of a group of fabulous people who helped me along the road of happy destiny. I also remember Rick letting me know he would be cruising his boat "Progress" down from NW Ohio to Charleston, and he stopped along the way in Myrtle Beach to visit with me after I had moved there. He helped a ton of people. Rest in peace, my friend. My heart goes out to his family.

“ Rick was a great friend, a kind man, a man of gratitude he showed in service to others.
He was so articulate and what a great laugh!
He will be terribly missed by the two of us.
