“ Dear Aunt Bea and the rest of the Bea & Dick Fay family,
I am sending deepest sympathy to all of you. I remember all of the trips Uncle Dick & Aunt Bea and all of you at one time or another made to Dubuque and the trips I made with Mom & Dad to see you. So many memories and so many happy times. There was always and smile on Uncle Dick's face and he always made you feel inportant. I remember Uncle Dick singing while I played the organ. I know family was inportant to him. I will be thinking of each and every one of you over the next week. Stay strong and every one of you give Aunt Bea a hug from me.
Love,

“ Mr. Richard,

I never met you but I know your son James. He's a great guy and if he resembles you in any way I'm sure you were a great guy as well. Hope you rest in peace.

Sincerely,
