“ I had the opportunity to work with Rick at the Northwest Ohio Psychiatric Hospital. He was an excellent RN, a true advocate for the patients, and always supportive to me while I worked there. Rick had a great sense of humor, also! I was saddened to learn of his passing. My thoughts and prayers are with his family and many friends, especially Scott C.

“ We are so very sorry for your loss. The times we spent with Rick were always full of fun and laughter. Tiny and I appreciated everything Rick did with and for our son Scott. He treated Scott like a son and Scott regarded him as his second dad. Our whole family will surely miss him. Rest In Peace my friend until we meet again to go fishing and hunting, save a big one for me (Tiny).

“ One day I walked across the street near his end and he was watching the View. I said turn that sh.t off or I'll go back across the street. He did and I stayed. The next day I walked over and he was laying there and I said I thought you'd being watching the view. He said I taped it for you and smiled, shrugged and his eyes seem to pop. He thought he was funny!
