“ I work for the Miller family at Colonial Courier Service in Maumee, Ohio, and have known them prior as one of my business customers for about twelve years. I drive truck for them now, and so, my interactions with Bob have been mostly in passing, as I wisked through the office on my way to jumping in another truck and heading to the next hot delivery point or pickup, or talking on the phone as I checked in my location. Bob had a way of always giving you a sense of cheeriness and humor with any communication. He could tell you the world was ending tomorrow with the wit and humor that makes you realize the important things in life and that sharing our most positive spirit is what it's all about. His presence will be missed by many, myself being one for sure. I'm glad to have known and worked for such a remarkable inspiration. A piece of his personality I will carry with me no doubt and will become a note in my own instrument of good will. Thank you Bob and may you rest in happiness. Doug Griffin

“ *What do we do when Papa Bear begins his journey walking up Heaven's Stairs?,
We remember Papa Bear as a fun, loving, bear who truly cared.
He loved his cubs Kathy, Ken and Sher, oh and David, Trish and Greg, just to be fair.
His grand cubs always made him smile, Shaun, Ashley, Brandon, Nicole, David, Amy, Kelsey, Emily and finally his Kyle.
But by far the most important in his life, is his companion, friend, Judie, his wife.
Papa Bear would tell us to baby step it, life without him we will all take a hit.
Papa Bear will always be in our hearts we will forever be with him and never be apart.
When it rains and we all feel like crying, we have to remember that our Papa Bear is smiling.*
