

Robert Brown

November 21, 1922 - March 3, 2015

He grew up through some of our countries greatest times and biggest challenges. Now at 92 Robert Brown has begun another journey. Born in Plymouth, Michigan where he married his high school sweetheart Frances Morgan Brown and began their family of two boys Jay and Randy and eventually moved and lived in Toledo Ohio.

In WWII he served his country as a naval pilot in the Pacific and flew with the Navy Reserves finishing his career in 1968 as a Lieutenant Commander.

His passion was sales and meeting people and became a Regional Manager for Abbott Laboratories, retiring after 30 years with this company.

Flying, sales, story-telling, meeting people, golf, travel and his family formed the center of his life

He leaves two great sons, a super daughter in law and 4 wonderful grandchildren who will miss him as they grow and experience life themselves.

Bon voyage Robert...

“ Bob was one of my first and favorite patients. I also treated your mom years ago. You had such wonderful parents. Bob would tease me and make me laugh on every visit. I will miss him.
