“ John, Debby, and family,

We were very sorry to read of your father's passing. I only spoke with him once, about two or three years ago, but found him to be so personable, especially under the circumstances of our meeting. My impression was that he was a good man, and reading the obituary, it appears he was a good father as well. You have our sincere condolences,

Lorrie and Joe

“ Sorry to hear of your loss. Bob and I car pooled together when I worked at Jeep. He also was a golf buddy. He was one of the kindest people I knew. Bob will always be in my mind.##imported-begin##Nick Krochmalny nkrochma@peoplepc.com##imported-end##
