

Robert McVicker

January 25, 1942 - February 15, 2025

Robert E. McVicker, age 83, passed away peacefully in his home on February 15, 2025.

He was born to Robert A. and Faye (Giffin) McVicker on January 25, 1942. He married the love of his life, Carolyn Startzman, on December 23, 1984 and together they raised two sons. Bob dedicated his career to working as a welder for The Anderson's in their fabrication shop until his retirement. He was an active member of the Club 16 Car Club and enjoyed fishing, hunting, and spending time with his family at the cabin in Pennsylvania. Bob also enjoyed relaxing and watching his old black-and-white western movies and nascar races. Above all, he cherished being a grandfather! He deeply loved and cared for his grandchildren, whom he affectionately called "My Breet-see" and "My little buddy."

Bob was preceded in death by his parents; sisters, Sondra Zeck, Beverly Marcum, Marilyn Monroe and brother, Jeffrey McVicker. He is survived by his loving wife, Carol; sons, David (Megan) Jones, and Dan (Kristi) Jones; grandchildren, Jaidan, Maddex and London; brothers, John (Mary) McVicker, James (Kathy) McVicker as well as, many nieces and nephews.

Per Bob's request, a Private Memorial Service will be held for the family on March 1, 2025.

Memorials may take the form of contributions to the American Heart Association or to the American Red Cross.

“ Uncle Bob, my shorty, you will truly be missed. I didn't get to see you or speak to nearly enough since moving to Arizona but, you and aunt Carol were always a phone call away. I will cherish having you here for the biggest moments of my life. You were the best god-father a girl could ask for and just an even better man. I love you.

“ Bob was such a funny sarcastic man. I don't know anyone who he couldn't make laugh. I will cherish the memories I have and remember all the times he picked on me. I am so sorry for all your losses. He will be truly missed.
