“ To Janet and your family, Marty and I are so sorry to hear of Bob's passing. It will leave an empty space that nothing can fill. I was there at the beginning when you met Butch's friend Bob and was the Matron of Honor at your wedding. Janet, you and I have been through life's best and worst so know I'm here.

“ Pete and I are so very sorry to see this news of Uncle Bob's passing. Our deepest sympathy's go out to Aunt Janet and my cousins and their families. I remember good times and how much of a crush I had on my Uncle as a young kid. That's because he was so kind and funny and enjoyed being around his family.
