“ *I have fond memories of the days as children we played together. Ron was always fun. He had a wonderful sense of humor. I had not seen him since Grandmother Brigg's funeral. How fast time gets away from us. Please extend our condolences to his family. I still have that huge chunk of yellow glass we found on the railroad tracks one afternoon. I used it for years as a paperweight and every time I saw it, I remembered that fun filled day with Ron and Mike when we went where weren't supposed to, seeking treasure and flattening pennies. “ Dear Michelle & Family,
This prayer has been of comfort to me many times, I hope you find some solace in these words.

A Message to Us From Those Who Have Left

*Loved ones, relatives and friends, I have left;
but my last breath did not say “goodbye”,
for my love for you is truly timeless,
beyond the touch of passing.
I leave myself to your memory, with love.*

*I leave my thoughts, my laughter, and my dreams
to you whom I have treasured
beyond gold and precious gems.*

*I leave you what no thief can steal,
the memories of our times together:
the tender love-filled moments,
the successes we have shared,
the hard times that brought us closer together
and the roads that we have walked side by side.*

*I also leave you a solemn promise that now that I am home in the bosom of God,
I am still present,
whenever and wherever you call on me.
My energy will be drawn to you
by the magnet of our love.*

*Whenever you are in need, call me;
I will come to you
with my arms full of wisdom and light
to open up your blocked paths,
to untangle your knots
and to be your avenue to God.*

*And all that I have taken with me as I left is your love and the millions of memories
of all that we have shared.*

*So I truly entered my new life
as a millionaire.*

*Fear not nor grieve at my departure,
you whom I have loved so much,
for my roots and yours
are forever intertwined.*

*With a Hug,

“ *My sincere condolences to Michelle, Lori and family. Ron will be surely missed.
A wizard has left us, but we will hear from him again. The phone will ring and the game begins. We can not tell you the secret but he will reveal the card you are holding without fail.
Ron was my step-dad a man of many talents. Loving and caring. We explored the Indy 500, seen many car shows along with card tricks and time at the lake. My only regret was not knowing him as a man, as a boy I didn't understand.
Principles before personalities!
Love you Ron!!!*

“ Mike.....Sorry to hear about the passing of your brother. Ron was a good guy, always with a smile for everyone. I remember the day he started at the Blade. I couldn't believe he was old enough to start an apprenticeship. He was not only old enough but proved to be one of the best. The "grim reaper" is taking a toll on that old gang of ours. Ernie, Rodger, Terry and now Ron. GOD will watch over him now.
