“ Jack and Family:
I was saddened to read of your mother's passing in the Blade. How wonderful to have her for 96 years and those tons of memories which can now be stored in your hearts. I extend to you my sympathy and wish you love and peace.

“ I didn't meet Rosie until the last few years of her life, but I delighted in her smile and her easy-going nature. I liked to call her a "little bird" because she was so tiny, so pretty. I asked her once what her favorite food was and she told me sloppy joes! We'd spend time together when Sandy and JD went out dancing. She laughed at me when I rolled around on the floor with the dogs. She was popular wherever she went. She radiated an approachable demeanor. My heart goes out to Sandy and her family, who have had to endure so much loss over the last couple of years. Sandy and JD adored this little lady. Rosie had a good life here in Florida, and we will all miss hearing about the cute things she'd say. Love and hugs and blessings. Debbie Klein
