

Rosemary McCammon

May 9, 1939 - April 16, 2015

Rosemary McCammon, age 75, died Thursday April 16, 2015 at St. Luke's Hospital in Maumee, Ohio.

She was born on May 9, 1939 in Toledo, Ohio to Karl and Bertha Wolfert. She was a graduate of Libbey High School. Rosemary worked as a butcher at Wolfert's and Shorling's Meat Markets.

Beloved wife, mother and grandmother, Rosemary McCammon leaves a legacy of sharing. The Toledo community enjoyed her culinary talents for decades through her talents at Wolfert's and Schorling's markets. Family and friends were spoiled by her generosity in the kitchen. Her door was always open and no one ever left hungry. Her generous spirit was contagious and will stay with all those who were lucky enough to know her. She was a wonderful mother, friend and an amazing cook, with a great sense of humor. Thank you Grandma Rosie.

She is survived by her spouse Gerald and their children Kurt (Carol) and Kevin (Susan) McCammon; grandchildren Kyle, Korey, Chloe and Gage; sister Ruth Ann Baumel. She was preceded in death by her parents, and brothers Karl and Paul Wolfert.

Friends may visit at the Coyle Funeral Home, 1770 S. Reynolds Rd on Sunday, April 19, from 3-7 p.m. The funeral ceremony will take place on Monday, April 20 at 11:00 a.m. at Bethel Lutheran Church, 1853 South Ave., with a luncheon to follow. Interment will be private.

“ What a wonderful picture of Rosie - exactly how I want to remember her! Words cannot begin to describe the impact Rose and Jerry had on my life during those most formative years of my teens. I'll never forget how they always welcomed me into their home - usually without an invitation - and let me stay as long as I wanted. I always loved talking to Rosemary because she was so "real" and wasn't afraid to say what was on her mind. She'll leave a void in the lives of all those who knew and loved her.
