“ Dear Aunt Ruth - You were a huge part of my childhood and through out the years.

You had much love and laughter to give our whole family. My husband, Lloyd, always enjoyed your company and sharing laughs with you. I hold fond memories with you and Venere growing up. Aunt Ruth, you have always been a loving, dear, witty and beautiful Aunt. I know you are in heaven with your daughter, Venere and your sister Pat. All of you are cradled in God's hand.

*With Love Always,
Sally*

“Aunt Ruth was a welcome addition into Uncle Art Kiefer's family. Her entry into his very large group of brothers, sisters, nieces and nephews was joyfully received. She always showed an interest in the lives and activities of us all. I will remember her for her infectious smile and wit, and her beautiful needlework.
