Sayed Payman Hashemi

December 16, 1961 - August 15, 2008

In his hometown of San Antonio, Texas, Sayed tragically passed away in an auto accident Friday morning, August 15, 2008.

Sayed was born December 16, 1961 in Iran to Bagher and Mahvash Hashemi and came to Columbus, Ohio in 1976.

He graduated from Upper Arlington High School and the Ohio State University. He spent time working in Columbus, Ohio and most recently was an Operations Manager for the Wachovia Banking and Securities firm in San Antonio.

He is survived by his only brother, Pej (Carey) Hashemi of Sylvania, Ohio, his niece, Madelina and nephews, Armand and Landen Hashemi.

Friends may call at the Coyle Funeral Home 1770 S. Reynolds Road Sunday from 3-8 p.m. The funeral service will be in the mortuary Monday at 10:30 a.m. with interment to follow at Toledo Memorial Park cemetery.

“ Pejman-Jun

I'm am so very sorry at the passing of your brother. It seems like just yesterday we were partying with your cousin, Bahrom,in Columbus. I miss those days and will always remember them with great affection. An old custom: "take the best of your brother...and spread those seeds to those around you. It will be his legacy". Peace be to you and your family.##imported-begin##Mike Miller 08/26/2008##imported-end##

“ Dearest Pejman,
My thoughts have been and especially now are with you, Payman and your family and I hope to meet your family very soon.

Even though I haven't seen you and Payman in years, decades, I still have vivid and great memories of you guys entertaining and taking care of me, your little cousin during the 1070s in Iran and Ohio.

In the last few weeks, I had been trying to find you two on the internet, especially through facebook.

My thoughts are with all of you.
Best, Hooman###imported-begin###Hooman Jalili

“ Dr. Hashemi,
My sincere sympathy on the tragic passing of your brother. I lost my brother only a month ago and know the deep sorrow you are experiencing. If he was half the person you are, then he was very special indeed.

Sincerely,
Ronnie Fish

“ I met Payman, in person, a few years ago at Pejman and Carey’s house. He had a great sense of humor and a person full of confident and pride. But I always remember Payman from their Mom’s funny stories.

I was heartbroken by his tragic and untimely death. Pejman Joon, I pray for you and your family to have the resilience, patience and courage during these difficult times.

Amin

“ Sayed was a great person. Always thinking of others before himself. He was always positive and ready to lend a helping hand. He was a great help when I started with the Wachovia, always asking if I was okay. Thank you Sayed for those times. He will be missed by his peers and friends. My prayers and blessing go out to Sayed's family.##imported-begin##Patricia S Chapa 08/24/2008##imported-end##

“ Dear Pejman,

Throughout last week, I kept having the happiest memories of Payman. We had so much fun playing together as children. It was one of the best times of my life. Never a dull moment with both of you. I felt really lucky to have you both in my life. Then last night, I was shocked to learn of the sudden passing of Payman.

Every interaction with him was an adventure. He was far from ordinary. He lived life to the fullest--to the best of his abilities--and we all had fun bein...##imported-begin##Rhonda DJalili Petsef Maguire 08/24/2008##imported-end##
