“ I met Shirley while playing tennis in Perrysburg. She played with the regular group on Tuesday mornings. After I was no longer able to attend with the group, I could come over to her house and ask her to "come out and play" and she did. Shirley was also a regular swimmer at the Perrysburg Y where I saw her & often visited with her. At all times, Shirley was friendly and gracious. The world will miss such a lovely person but she is heaven's gain. Mary K. Hannum
