“ I knew Sue from several mutual spots of life, first through OA and then many years later, more recent years, when I discovered her and her friends at the Maumee McDonald's' What a pleasure it was for me to see her there and to enjoy her company and conversation. She was a unique woman who talked lovingly of her son and could be that woman described in the obit as a person of "off-beat humor and sarcasm!" She was proud of her overstuffed car, a situation which may have caused her family some distress. Oh yes, she was unique, spoke her mind, and dearly loved her McDonald's community. Rest in Peace, Sue...I am glad to have known you. I have missed not seeing you in Maumee.
