

Tam Salsberry

November 12, 1956 - July 2, 2022

Tam Salsberry, 65, of Toledo, Ohio passed away on July 2, 2022. She is survived by her spouse Tamra Keil, as well as her brother Todd (Cam) Salsberry of Hudson, Ohio and her adoring nieces Clare, Madeline, Audrey and Eve. She also leaves behind many grandnephews and a grandniece, all of which she showered with adoration and PEZ candies, keeping alive a tradition started by her mother almost 40 years ago. She is preceded in death by her loving mother and father, Barbara and Thomas Salsberry.

Tam was a graduate of the University of Toledo and UT Law School. She and her mother opened Barbara Brown dress shop and worked side by side for many years, enjoying owning and operating the business in downtown Waterville until its closing. Not one to toot her own horn, Tam was extremely creative and enjoyed hobbies such as woodworking, knitting and cross stitch where she could let her artistic talents shine. She and Tamra, her partner of 22 years most enjoyed spending time in their home together in the Burnley Wood neighborhood, where Tam loved to walk her beloved dogs Bob and Kirby.

Her friends will remember her for her wit and willingness to find humor in anything. Her cherished nieces will remember her giant smile, joyous laughter and her youthful sense of fun. Tamra will remember her unwavering loyalty, support and companionship, her fantastic sense of humor and her daily joy for life.

“ Dear Todd and family, I was so very sorry to see Tam’s obituary in Sunday’s Blade. My deepest condolences. My mother, Joanne Brell, and your mother were good friends and mom worked at Barbara Brown’s with your mother and sister for almost the entire time the store was open. She loved both of them so much. She especially enjoyed Tam’s wit and sense of humor, as Tam always looked at things a little bit differently than everybody else!

During those years I got to know Tam better (I frequented the store!) While my two sisters and I all went to McAuley HS , like your sister, Tam was a few years behind me. Tam always made me laugh!! I am lucky enough to have one of Tam’s pieces of Crosstitch hanging in my house. I assume Tam gave it to my mother for a birthday or Christmas gift. I brought it to my house after my mom passed away, now over 17 years ago. In Crosstitch, at the bottom of the piece, is the inscription : “Wrought by Tam Salsberry, November 1980”. Now when I look at it I will think of two special ladies- Tam and my mother! They are joining with your mom in a heavenly Barbara Brown’s reunion!!

“ Tamra,
Tam had such a fun loving and kind soul. 💜
I always looked forward to catching Tam walk by my house with Kirby and Bob and knew I would get a good laugh or giggle chatting with her every single time! She always left our conversations with a smile, words of wisdom, and some smart-ass remark lingering...
I had no idea of all the other talent and skills Tam had accomplished until you shared stories and showed me some of her her works she made from wood.
I wished I could of spent more time with Tam had I known she would not be for here for many more years to come...
Tam was the roots of our South End and Burnley neighborhood family tree.
What a great loss our neighborhood and world has endured.
I wish I could give you one last hug and tell you how much I admired you Tam.
You will be dearly missed my friend, love, and hugs... 💜

“ I have many great memories growing up with my cousins Tam and Todd ❤️❤️ My Dad and Tam's Mom are brother and sister. My sister Jody and I spent much time playing with them at their home on Townley Road . My fondest memory was playing Ring around the Rosie, circling their dining room buffet. The buffet came tumbling down with all of my Aunt's china. We each get sent for a time out and told to be quiet for one hour. Tam, Todd, Jody, and I were not quiet but laughed our heads off for one solid hour!! I have many holiday
Memories and will always have solid love for Tam her family ❤️ RIP
Tam ❤️😘😇❤️

“ Tam was such a wonderful person. We worked together for many years at Port Lawrence Title. Her dry sense of humor was always present and she had such a way of making you laugh. She was fastidious and so knowledgeable in her work and always willing to help anyone that walked into her office. Her dogs were so precious to her and I'm sure will feel her not being there for them. My sincerest condolences to Tamra and the Salsberry family. She will be greatly missed.
