“ I worked with Tamra in the budget office and I still find it very hard to walk out of work without her. She'd always come into my office and let me know it was time to shut it down. I didn't realize how close we had become.....Tamra had a spirit that just bonded with people instantly. She always tried to make everyone feel important. I am so sorry for your loss!

We were not able to attend the memorial service for Tamra. Now and in the days ahead of this New Year, may Jesus our God of comfort hold of you in the palm of His hand as you go forward and remember and celebrate her life legacy. We have gained much hope and encouragement from the lyrics of this song through times of difficulty and sorrow and we share with you: 'Be not afraid, I go before you always. Come, follow me, and I will give you rest'. May our risen Lord & Savior richly bless you all. 'Earth has no sorrows that Heaven can't heal'.

“ Tamra was the bright light in any room! Every day she brought joy, thoughtfulness and commitment to our office at George Lang and Associates. I loved Tamra and George loved Tamra. She was so special! We loved sharing her happiest life moments of graduation, wedding and baby showers. My heart is broken for all of your family. Scott and Jan, I send you my very deepest sympathy. You and Justin are in my prayers.

With love,
Susan Lang

“ Tami was the life of any party, always thoughtful, best hostess gift to Denise and myself...she was the person you always wanted present and she was. I simply cannot believe her light and love is gone other than in our hearts and memory. I struggle to say goodbye to such a darling woman....who by the way always rocked those super high heel shoes! The girl knew how to wear heels and looked damn good in them. Justin I will be there for you always. You were the love of her life as well as her babies. Tami wanted nothing more than to be Justin's wife and a mom.

“ My beautiful, funny, loving and giving niece. I will miss you with every breath that I take. I remember from the day you were born how you filled my heart with joy. It gave me great pleasure to watch you grow into the wonderful loving and generous person through adult years. Most of us are so worried about the little things in life and worry about how we will balance our lives with all the demands. You Tami, focused on family. Whether the family you were raised in or the family that you created with Justin. You showed us by example exactly how to prioritize life through the love of family. While you had great party planning skills, your love of family far outweighed any other strength that you had by far. Rest in peace my angel, we will see each other again one day.
