“ I had the great honor of being an adopted Stallkamp for my entire life. I was blessed to be a neighbor as a child and later as an adult. Our families have shared years of love, joy and tears. Grandma Tess had the best hugs, huge heart and great advice. We hope you find comfort in how much she loved each of you.
I know our families will remain close...our hearts are broken....please know she may gone but will never be forgotten.
Our love to all of you. Don and Lynda Frost and Jennifer and Faith Reiff###imported-begin##Lynda Frost

“ I am so sad to hear she is gone. She truly was a saint, all you boys, of my. A very loving, caring person who seem to never lose her sense of humor. We could always hear her contagious laugh in the backyard when she wasn't yelling one of your names for something. Our neighborhood and our neighbors were the best in the whole world. And certainly colored our lives with the most wonderful memories that I cherish every day of my life and thank God we were all brought together, to be there for each other. Your mom was a one of a kind. Just an awesome person, and she will be greatly missed by all of us who ever knew her. “ Dear Ray and Family,
It was an honor to be allowed into your mom's life. She had such an effervescent personality. I'm sure that she never met a stranger and became instantaneously "dear" to all. I am truly grateful for knowing her.

“ To Tess's Family,
*I went to St. Ursula with Tess. For the last eight years, I have been in a bridge club with her.
I was privileged to be her friend. Father's The funeral mass was beautiful. Father's homily described her perfectly. She placed all her worries in the hands of God, and was always there for her family and friends. She never complained about any misfortune. She made prayer requests for all through "The Little Flower." I will miss her compassion and her smile.
I am sorry for the pain of your loss.

“ Tess was a one of a kind woman. She will always be remembered for her positive attitude and her caring and giving. I enjoyed playing bridge with her and being aware of how active she was even until the last. We need more people like Tess. She is , however, in a better place. We will all miss her.###imported-begin##William F. Ward wfward73@gmail.com###imported-end##
