“ Uncle Tom (or Uncle Tommy as we called him) had a terrific sense of humor and an infectious laugh. We could always look to him to answer just about any question we had. He taught me the waltz, and that the goose from up north is a Canada goose, not a Canadian goose :D I loved his expression of amazement, "Holy Cats!" I remember his days of smoking his pipe and later, drinking wine in soda pop! I'm sure he's having a grand time with his brothers, sisters and parents. Rest easy, Uncle Tom.

“ I have many good memories of a kind and gentle uncle. His many nieces and nephews were his family. He inspired me with his lifelong dedication to learning. May he rest in peace with his mother, father and siblings.
