“ Tom was our neighbor in Kenosha, and we enjoyed being neighbors with the Meeks, loved their little Valerie and Tommy at that time, our children were just a bit older than they. Tom was always so friendly and helpful to us. We remember one time when one of our children , a new driver, took part of our garage door down with the car and Tom came to the rescue and put it back together again for us He was always willing to help. We will always remember Tom and Pat, Valerie and Tom Jr. as our wonderful neighbors and friends. May you all enjoy much comfort and peace in knowing Tom is in a wonderful place now, renewing acquaintances with his family and friends that have gone before him. Our condolences to you Pat, Val and Tom Jr.

Dear sweet friend. How do you say goodbye to someone so special? I loved his corny jokes and his talent for always remembering the punchlines; his big hugs, his laugh, and the crazy look in his eyes when something upset him. We shared so much and it is heartbreaking that he is gone. Lean on your friends now for strength. Love to you and the kids.
