

Timothy M. Engel

June 14, 1980 - November 10, 2015

On Tuesday, November 10, 2015, Tim passed away in Nashville, TN. Tim was born on June 14, 1980. Tim is survived by his parents, John and Ginny Engel; his sister, Heather Engel of Dublin, Ohio; Aunt Donna (Chuck) Barry of Missouri; Aunt Sue Engel of Toledo; Uncle James (Gina) Engel and their children Sean, Austin, and Eyob of Massachusetts; cousin Kim (Tony) Hurtig and their children Heidi and Andy Hurtig of Kansas; cousin Dan (Kathy) Held and their children Hannah and Mason of Arkansas. In addition, his passing left many wonderful friends from across the globe that he loved.

Tim was a 1998 graduate of St. John Jesuit High School where he played football. In addition to attending and graduating from the University of Dayton with a Major in Mechanical Engineering with a Minor in Biomedical Engineering, Tim attended the University of Limerick in Ireland. Also, he was working on a degree in business.

His career took him to many places – West Coast, East Coast, Nashville, and Australia to name a few. He made and remained friends with many individuals along the way.

As an individual, he made it his mission to make people laugh even if at times it might have been a bit irreverent. He had a knack for retelling a story with the exact accent and words of the people he encountered. He set extremely high expectations for his life. He also was a jokester and a risk-taker – always seeking the next challenge. He was artistic, leaving his parents a pencil drawing of the family pet. In addition, he played the piano and guitar. He was a true left-brain and right-brain individual, which can be a challenging personality. He was always inquisitive – seeking to understand everything such as how things worked, the world, and his place in it.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, John and Caroline Wall and Arvine and Rose Engel, along with all of their siblings.

We are sure that he is now in the care of God and probably telling a joke. We shall miss him more than words can express. Many hearts are hurting.

Services will be held on Saturday, December 5, 2015, at St. Joan of Arc, 5856 Heatherdowns, Toledo, Ohio. Our wish is that friends and family will meet starting at 9:00 a.m. at St. Joan of Arc for a time of sharing thoughts and love for Tim. A Mass will follow at 10:00 a.m. at the church. Internment of Tim's ashes will be a private family affair at a later date. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to a charity of the donor's choice. Immediately following the Mass, it is the family's wish that friends and family join us for a luncheon to continue to celebrate Tim. The place of the luncheon will be announced after Mass. Coyle Funeral Home is assisting the family with arrangements.

“ *Ginnwa and John,
It is with a heavy heart that I send this feeling of sorrow for you two and for Tim and the whole Engel family. I have heard of Tim many times in the lounge from Mother Ginny. I wish I would have had the pleasure of meeting Tim in person. Joni and I talk of you guys all the time and it saddens us to hear this bad news. If Tim and "I'm sure he was " was as sweet as his parents are, we have lost a fine young person. Please take heart, that Tim is being held closely in our Dear Lords Loving Arms, where there is no more pain and suffering , but only our Dear Lords Beautiful Love and Peace. We both are very sorry Ginny and John. God Bless Tim and the whole Engel Family. Joni and Vic.*

“ Tim, I still can't, or don't want to, believe the news. Over the years we spoke here and there, and now I feel it wasn't even close to often enough. There was never a time I hung up the phone not laughing, and for days after I would be smiling or laughing at whatever the jokes were. I only wish I recognized your pain. Those that really knew you cherished your personality and what you brought to the table. To those that didn't, it's their loss. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Ginny, John & Heather - Looking at the Obits tonight, I saw a familiar face & name!!!! My heart is breaking for the 3 of you! I know I could add tears to your bucket right now.....I am so so so very very very sorry! Our boys were born only 8 days apart.....and I do have wonderful memories of our neighborhood kids all growing up together. I can still see Heather & Timmy jumping into our little swimming pool we had in our side yard on Imperial..... the kids were having a ball! We do not know what life has in store for us.....and glad I do not know the future.....However I do know that none of us will be here forever.....that choice is not up to us. I am going to guess that God needed another angel and chose a handsome guy from Toledo/Sylvania. My deepest sympathy from the very bottom of my heart goes out to all of your family, Ginny & John! xoxoxoxoxoxo

“ I'm so grateful to have known Tim. Since we met at Dayton 14 years ago Tim was always there to share a laugh, a memory, and many random visits always filled with more than one beer and usually deep conversations about life, God, and sports. Tim I will miss you dearly and hope to see you again in heaven to laugh together again someday buddy. Thanks for the memories!
