“ I will always treasure the memories you provided me as a child at grandma's and grandpa's home on Wade St. I can hear your request for a manicure on your nails and knew it meant that a run for a greasy hamburger and fries from Green Lantern was coming my way or the candy bar from the Union Station or from the Park Lane Hotel. Love you for putting up for our infatulation on magazines and music on the Jackson's Five but especially Michael Jackson. Thank you for your tamales and your special meatballs.

Love you and will see you someday in heaven, love you always your neice, Lucy. ##imported-begin## Your neice Lucy(Lu) ##imported-end##

“ To Juanita & Sally and all of Trino's family: Heartfelt sympathies from me and all of the Contreras clan on your loss. I wish I could see you tonight in person. Know that I am there in spirit. I will say a special prayer for Trino tonight. Although I don't see you all very often, I feel a special connection from our childhood memories and being at your parents house a few times. I think there was always a card game going on! Love to all.##imported-begin##Raquel (Contreras)Bahnsen rbahnsen@buckeye-express.com##imported-end##
