“Velma and Arlie were neighbors of our family when we lived on Islington St. We all enjoyed their company as we were each sat on our prospective front porches. My mother especially enjoyed Velmas' sewing abilities. My mother did not sew and so anything that I ineeded altering was done very professionally by Velma and greatly appreciated by my mother and me. When I was in my early teens I used to babysit for Sandy and Gary while Arlie was bowling and Velma was working at Swartz's drugstore. She was a great asset to the store because the owner was not always a pleasant person and Velma always had a smile on her face and was very helpful to the customers.

My brother Jack Streicher and I want to express our sympathy to all of Velmas' family.

We enjoyed knowing her.

*Sincerely,
Carol Streicher Eble*
