

Vicki Lesko

April 20, 1959 - May 25, 2025

Vicki Jo Lesko, lovingly known as Victoria, passed away peacefully at home on May 25, 2025, at the age of 66. A proud resident of Toledo, Ohio, Vicki was a vibrant soul who lived life boldly, laughed often, and loved deeply.

Born on April 20, 1959, in Henry County, Ohio, Vicki was the daughter of Marvin and Irene Creager (Ulch). She grew up surrounded by family and faith, building the strength and humor that defined her life.

Vicki was the beloved mother of Susan Fullove, Jennifer Lesko-Duncan (Anthony), and Chad Lesko - all of Toledo, Ohio. Also, Mike Lesko of Shelby, OH, Vicki was a proud and devoted grandmother to six grandchildren who brought endless joy to her world. She is also survived by her cherished sister, Bev Messer (Rich) of Winter Haven, Florida, and a large extended family: Deb Ruotolo of Taylorsville, NC; Pamela Ouellette (Roger) of Camden, SC; Richard Dietrich (Malinda) of Hilton Head, SC; David Dietrich (Deb) of Toledo, OH; Randy Dieringer (Jude) of Sylvania, OH; John Dieringer (Wendy) of Cedar Park, TX; Sherri Gerken (Robert) of Greensboro, NC; Teresa Miller of San Antonio, TX; and Diana Adams (William) of Flat Rock, MI. She was preceded in death by her loving parents, Marvin and Irene, as well as her dear sisters Jean Dieringer (Walt) and Shirley Beavers (Bernard).

Vicki was known for her spirited personality and wicked sense of humor. Whether she was dancing in the kitchen, reading Amish novels and cookbooks, or teasing Tony with sass, she was always the life of the party. She delighted in shopping with her daughter Jennifer, devouring sweets with zero regret, and expressing her signature phrases like:

"Love you a bushel, a peck, and a hug around the neck,"

"Are my fingers cold?"

"Baby, it's cold outside."

"Swish and sway,"

"You lean piece of meat," and

"You oinker!"

She was deeply rooted in faith, attending The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, where she found community and comfort.

Special thanks to Nora Hallem and her endocrinologist, Allison Fleig for their unwavering care, compassion, and refusal to never give up on Vicki's wonderfully stubborn spirit.

“ I remember two separate incidents with my mom, one was when we were younger, my brother Chad and I were feeding my mom fish food and potpourri, she had one too many drinks and was passed out on the floor. When she woke up, she ended up going to UTMC to get checked out, and they told her that the fish food and potpourri absorbed the alcohol. She had alcohol poisoning. Then last summer, my mom was out shopping with me and had to break some wind what she thought and it was a mud slide. She walked out of the store and stood next to my car, and the mudslide gave way. I called my honey and told him to come CODE 3 with trash bags, and he asked where we were at, and I told him at the Goodwill so he gave me the trash bags I put them on the seat and the floor of the van and I made her get into the bag so none would get on the seat she didn't want to people at her new apartments to see her. I took her to a car wash and had her strip down to her underwear and put her hands on the hood. I turned the water on and lightly sprayed her down. I can hear my mom now saying that water is too cold and hurting my butt. I told her it was a soft spray. when she was cleaned she put her pull-up on, and I gave her some of my clothes to wear home. I drive pass that car wash and now laugh. I love and miss u mom jennifer
