Victoria Dunbar

February 04, 1917 - August 24, 2008

Victoria A. "Tory" Dunbar, 91 of Toledo died peacefully in her home at Swan Creek Retirement Village, August 24, 2008. She was born February 4, 1917 to Manford and Anna Harlton in Wauseon, Ohio. Tory graduated from Wauseon High School in 1933.

Tory married Glenn Dunbar in 1935 and during 70 years of marriage raised six children, five sons and one daughter. Glenn and Tory worked together in the early years of their building a family business, which still exists today. Tory was incredibly supportive of Glenn in all his various endeavors. As a result of their active membership in Rotary, Glenn and Tory traveled to some of the most exciting places in the world. For her exemplary service to Rotary, Tory received one of their highest honors, being named a Paul Harris Fellow. She was also an active member of Zion United Methodist Church, where she expressed her musical talents by playing piano and singing in the choir. Tory also served on the board of the Toledo YWCA and was a long-time member of Toledo Country Club, where she played in a nine-hole league. She enjoyed needlepoint and personally made sure each of her numerous grandchildren had Christmas stockings. Glenn and Tory spent many summers at their cottage in Indian River, Michigan. Tory was a loving wife and devoted mother spending much of her time raising her children.

Tory was preceded in death by her husband, Glenn, her son Harlton, her parents, step-father, Earl Hodges, brother, Bev Harlton and sister, Margaret Ross. She is survived by her sons, Lee (Carol), David, (Laura), Stephen (Karen), Jeffrey (Jean), daughter, Victoria (Max) Baney and daughter-in-law, Linda Dunbar. She is also survived by 16 grandchildren and 28 great-grandchildren, and 3 great-great grandchildren.
