“ I met Grandpa Vince only a few times. The first time I met, he asked me why I don't wear socks at home and I smiled. I remember him as a kind hearted gentle soul with a warm smile.

“ Our deepest condolences to all of Vince's family. Vince was such a wonderful man, and an amazingly devoted spouse. 87 years and still I think we all would've liked more time with him. He had such a sense of order and decorum, and he pondered a matter carefully before acting on it. We grieve with you. You are very much in our thoughts and prayers.
