“ When my daughter was first starting to go out with Matt, Nanny opened her home to me. I think it was a Mother's Day brunch. That was the first time I met her and had a chance to enjoy her very grand hospital! throughout the years my daughter grew to love her and she was very special to her. Nanny will be remembered in many people's hearts. We are praying for God to gently comfort the family with his tenderness and strength.

“ To Virginia's family from Janet Stevens Fox....reading your Mom's obituary brought back many wonderful memories of growing up with all my wonderful friends in First English Lutheran Church....along with my sister Donna Stevens Dixon. Sunday School, Luther League, Junior Choir.....precious memories and of course, Pastor Stemmerman. I can remember going to your home....and just how warm and caring your parents were. The picture on this page with that beautiful stain glass window and your beautiful Mother...is so precious. God Bless and Keep you.....there will be a wonderful reunion for you someday in Heaven with our loved ones and our Lord Jesus.
