“ Ginny was a dear life-long friend of my mother, Anita Lanzinger. Growing up I was kind of an adopted daughter of Ginny's, and always created something wonderful...In a child's eyes!...for her for Christmas. I don't remember her ever not having a smile on her face. Mom thought so much of her. If I remember correctly, they became fast friends when working together at a five and dime downtown. Ginny may have even introduced mom to dad(?). I do know that when mom suffered a stroke in 1997 and lost the ability to communicate, Ginny went to visit her at Flower Rehab, and had a very engaging conversation with mom, in a way only life long friends could achieve. Ginny has been on my mind lately, now I know why. Best Friends Forever are now together again. Watch out heaven! Lynn (Lanzinger) Harman

“ It was an honor to know Virginia. She was so friendly and upbeat. We missed her at daily Mass and did not like hearing that she was suffering. Richard, you took such good care of her. Jim spoke so fondly of the two of you and I was very happy to meet you when I started going to Mass.
As we all know, change is constant.
I am leaving town today for a wk and will miss Virginia's funeral. You will all be in my thoughts and prayers, as you have been for years.
