“ Steve, Gary
Thoughts and prayers. Glad that I had the chance to see/talk to your mother many times. Before we moved from Point Place, we were on 102nd and I would see her often in her yard and in that same pew at St. John's and we always said hello to each other. When the weather was bad, I took in her garbage cans sometimes when I was driving by - I doubt she ever knew it was me !

“ Although several years have passed since I've seen Virgie, I immediately identified with the sparkle in her eyes and the wonderful joy in her smile in this posted picture.

I have such fond memories of her and sisters Charlotte and Jackie, along with their hubby's and children while we all picnicked together and played at the pool for endless hours on the hot summer days in Point Place.

*God rest her soul as she returns to her Maker and reunites with all the loved ones that have gone before her. May her legacy live on in your lives as you celebrate such a beautiful and gracious soul.
You're in our prayers,*

“ Ms. Ginny, as my boys and i knew Virginia became a beautiful and loving angel in our lives. She watched over us when we moved next door. She welcomed my boys and treated them like her grandchildren, opening her home to them anytime for treats, hugs and a smile. I KNOW that God put her in my life as we settled to a new city and new state and we did not know a soul. She befriended us quickly and mothered me with her words of wisdom, jokes and prayers. She lit candles for us and was a constant rooting praying warrior reminding me that all things would work out... she would say, "you'll see it will all work out. Just hang in there kid." In my most difficult times when sadness overwhelmed me it was Ms. Ginny that reminded me of who was in control. She never stopped giving me hope and praying along side of me. She is forever ebbed into my heart and has left an imprint of love in my soul that I will never forget. She is the only woman I have EVER met that spoke so highly of her husband. She never said any words that put her beloved in a negative light. She would say to me often, "he was a saint. He should have been a priest." I know she missed him very much and so as much as the sadness overwhelms me I know she is being celebrated and welcomed by her husband. When she stands before our Jesus I believe HE will be well pleased as she impacted many lives sharing the love of Christ with her warmth, smile, kindness and compassionate heart. My boys and I are very grateful for having Ms. Ginny in our lives. May she soar with the wings of angels..... resting peacefully.
